ORDER

On September 18, 2013, Administrative Law Judge Eric M. Fine of the National Labor Relations Board issued his Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondents engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that they take specific action to remedy such unfair labor practices.

No statement of exceptions having been filed with the Board, and the time allowed for such filing having expired,¹

¹ The initial due date for exceptions was October 16, 2013. In the absence of exceptions, the Board issued an order adopting the administrative law judge's decision on November 15, 2013. That Order, however, is rescinded because the underlying judge's decision was not served on all parties. On February 7, 2014, the Office of the Executive Secretary re-served the administrative law judge's decision on two Respondents, Modern Industrial Services, Inc. and

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in his Decision, and orders that the Respondents, Eddisons Facility Services LLC, Modern Industrial Services, Inc. and ISG Industrial Staffing Group, Inc, and their respective officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall take the action set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.

Dated, Washington, D.C., March 25, 2014.

By direction of the Board:

/s/Farah Z. Qureshi

Associate Executive Secretary
